3) Process for removal or reinstatement of Certified Judges on OAAS

Judges list:

i) Removal:

- a) If a Judge has not attended an OAAS Judging School on a specific Category at least once every 3 (three) years, it is the responsibility of the OAAS Judging Program Panel, in consultation with the District Director, to move Judges from “Certified” to “Uncertified” status for that specific Category. The OAAS Judging Program Panel will submit these names to the OAAS Manager who will notify the Judge of this change and remove them from the OAAS Judges’ List for that specific Category.
- b) If a Judge has not judged at least once every 3 (three) years on a specific Category, it is the responsibility of the OAAS Judging Program Panel, in consultation with the District Director, to move Judges from “Certified” to “Uncertified” status for that specific Category. The OAAS Judging Program Panel will submit these names to the OAAS Manager who will notify the Judge of this change and remove them from the OAAS Judges’ List for that specific Category

It is strongly recommended that Fairs rotate their Judges every 2 or 3 years to encourage more judges

NOTE: Judges may be “Certified” in some categories and “Uncertified” in others depending upon when they last attended an OAAS Judging School or judged.

ii) Reinstatement

- c) Judges moved to “Uncertified” status may recertify by successfully completing 1 (one) OAAS Judging School for those specific categories if they have attended an OAAS Judging School for that Category in the past 4 years. If it has been over 4 years, they must redo the entire Certification Process of attending an OAAS Judging School and Apprenticing.

Removal for Code of Conduct/Ethics Violation

- d) If it has been reported that a Judge has not abided by or has violated the “OAAS Judges and Instructors Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics”, the Judge will be contacted to present their explanation of the events. The OAAS Judging Program Panel will review each case, in consultation with the District Director, and the OAAS Executive and will submit names to the OAAS Manager who will notify the judge of their removal by registered letter.

Appeal Process

- e) Judges that have been removed from the OAAS Judges' lists for any reason may appeal their removal by submitting a letter appealing the decision to the OAAS Manager within 30 (thirty) days of receiving notification of their removal from the "OAAS Certified and Apprentice Homecraft Judges List" and/or the "OAAS Certified and Apprentice Agriculture and Horticulture Judges List" and/or "OAAS Certified and Apprentice Instructors' List".
